“ Words cannot express the sorrow that I feel for you. No parent should ever have to lose a child. Our loving Creator knows how hard this is on you. We are told at Ezekiel 18:22 “for I do not take any delight in the death of someone dying, is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord .” As you can see, He does not like death anymore than we do. It is not his will for us to die which is why He has given us the hope of everlasting life! (Psalms 37:9-11, 29; Rev. 21:3, 4). As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2Cor 1:3).

“ Though I never met Abigail personally, please know that I and others care about what family and friends are going through at this time. The only comfort I can send is a scripture, Isaiah 41:10 which says: "Don't be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you. I will hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness." Please allow Our Creator to cradle your hearts and help ease your pain when no one else can. Sincerely, Cathy Taylor

“ Paul, Ruth and family,

Know that our hearts are heavy knowing that Abigail is no longer here on earth and yet at the same time we rejoice that she is in the arms of our loving Savior, Jesus Christ. We are thankful that our families lives crossed paths on here on this earth. Abigail was a beautiful young lady. We are thankful for the memories and the sweet conversations that we had with Abigail. We are richer this side of heaven for having known all of the Robb family.

Our love and prayers,

Steve & Sally Dennison & family

“ I will always cherish the day this sweet girl asked me to be her friend. Her smile will be greatly missed. I will think of her every time I pass a Biggby, and I will laugh when I think of our embarrassing bowling scores. She will always hold a place in my heart. Love, Heidi Armstrong
