

Agatha Budrus

May 1, 1915 - February 25, 2011

Agatha Budrus has left the earthly tent of her body to be in a building of God, eternal in the heavens. (2 Corinthians Ch.5) Aggie was preceded in death by Leo, her husband of over 55 years. By her son Steve, Steve's wife Barb, her daughter Louise, brother Joe Smith and sister Mary Nafzlger. Aggie is survived by Louise's husband Cliff Ransler and 12 grandchildren: Rick and Mary Becker, Mike and Becky Becker, John and Kathy Szabo, David Budrus, Brian and Carrie Budrus, Tina Becker and Scott and Kathy Ransler. Also surviving are 12 great grandchildren: Mike and Krissy Borton, David Hoggatt, Travis and Mallory Becker, Zachery and Sydney Szabo, Brynn Budrus and Noah, Jonah, Micah and Michaela Ransler. 1 great great grandchild, Kaleb Borton with another on the way. Aggie lived a full life displaying the love of Christ to all who knew her. Hers was the most loving and welcoming home we have ever known. We will miss you grandma, but we know you are in a better place. No more sorrows tears or pain. (Revelation 21:4) Thank you Lord for sharing her with us. Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen. The family will meet friends Thursday from 10 AM until time of service at Noon at the BLOOMINGDALE CHAPEL, D. L. Miller Funeral Home, www.dlmillerfuneralhome.com . Interment will follow in Lindsley Cemetery. The family suggests memorial contributions to Hospice of Southwest Michigan.

“ I'm the one who bought Leo and Aggie's farmhouse. I know they hated to leave here, (we were all crying the day we signed the papers on the house) and Aggie came back to visit many times. She loved it here so much. The love they shared for this property and for each other is evident still today. I'm thankful to have known both Leo and Aggie.##imported-begin##Lynn Ashbrook##imported-end##

“ To all of Aggie's Grandchildren:
Sorry to hear of your Grandmother's death. Your Grandparents were good neighbors. We lost touch thru the years when they left the community of Cheshire. I grew up in the community and went to school with Steve and Louise as did my brothers. Again my thoughts are with your families.##imported-begin##Linda (Tuffelmire)Muenzer##imported-end##
