“ My sister was my backbone in all the years we spent together . I am proud to have been her brother . I will always think of her and embrace the moments we cheerished together . She had been through a lot and by the grace of God will not have to suffer any longer . I am keeping a promise to her that I will stay in recovery from my drug and alcohol addiction which I am really glad she was able to share in the last 2 years of her life.I love you Alicia and I will always look towards the sky when I am sad , tired .angry, lonely, or at piece with life,because I know you are watching over me and helping me keep on the right path in life and for that I will always be grateful.##imported-begin##Orton Engle (brother)##imported-end##

“ Lisa, you will be sorely missed. I knew you for many many years, and in more recent years you were an inspiration to me, the way you worked, kept a home and took care of your family. You braved cancer and all the illness in your family, you forgot about your own illness and took care of them instead. They say the good die young, and I so believe that now. I know we will meet again in Heaven when the good Lord calls me home. Until then, rest in peace and know you are still deeply loved and greatly missed.##imported-begin##Teressa Foster##imported-end##

“ My Darling daughter our love was so special and will always remain so. God gave me you as a special gift and now I must return you. It is as painful to let go as to give birth to you, but it must be done. You need your rest and freedom from pain. Rest in peace my child. the special calls of "I just need to talk with my Mommy" will always be in my memories.##imported-begin##Charlene Easey##imported-end##
