“ Before he met Cathy Allan had gone through a bad break up . He found me one day after a Hawthorne Gospel bus trip and I spent several hours counseling him . At the end I told him ... you can only see just so far as a human , we are short sided but God has a plan for your life and someday you will meet someone and have a beautiful family . On the next Hawthorne trip I introduced him to Cathy as she was chopping wood on the camping trip . They started dating then got married and moved away . When he visited Hawthorne Gospel one day he saw me and with tears in his eyes said thank you . He put his two fingers an inch apart and said . "I was this close to ending it all that night and if you hadn't spoken to me I was going to do something that night . Thank you so much for helping me and the family that you spoke about came true . " As I look at Allan's obituary I see the legacy he has left behind . I hope his family and children are all following the Lord hoping to one day all be united again. BrianSuveges@gmail.com

“ Cathy and family, We didn't know Al that well but he was a godly man, His presents at church always showed that and a great husband and Father. His service today was very inlighting to the person he was. Your children need to go forth and teach what their father taught them. This will be a hard time for you all but the Lord will carry you thrugh it. We miss think of mustard seed and have faith that great to get us through these things. Peace to you and the children.##imported-begin##Shirley & Don Brown##imported-end##

“ Allan was a great friend throughout high school and beyond. Throughout the years and miles, his phone calls and emails always lifted my spirits and brought a smile to my face. I will always treasure his friendship.

My sincerest condolences and prayers for Cathy and the kids.

“ Al is the best friend that a person could ever want. I am honored to have him for a friend for over 20 yrs. We went through the good, the bad, and the ugly together. Learning, growing and helping each other. You will be missed but your dreams will live on, and your goals achieved. Thomas Miller ”
