“ Amanda was a special woman with many virtues. She was a strong woman, her strength was admired by all that knew her.

Amanda was the type of person you could count on, and she was counted on by so many!

Amanda was a true blue friend! While she was going through difficult medical issues she offered to be with me when I was faced with a struggle myself. How kind and thoughtful she always was. ❤️
My prayers and love go out to Amanda's family and friends at this time. She's a beautiful Angel

Rest in peace!

Love,
Carol

“ My condolences to the family members and friends.

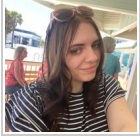

Amanda and I 'shared' Lane 16 at Holland Walmart. I would take over so she could go home. We would alternate buying the suckers and candies for the kids adults. She knew all the latest 'news' at the store, and had a huge clientele following. Everybody just loved her, and everyday, I would be told, by the customers, to tell her so-and-so said hi

We shared a lot of things in common and always told each other, 'I love you' on the days we saw each other.

Amabda sweetie, I love you and appreciate you!

“ Amanda was the one to train me at Walmart when I worked there a few years ago. She was immediately warm-hearted, funny, and patient. She was a great coworker and friend. She still remembered me years after e working there, showing that she genuinely cared. She always had suckers for kiddos and would let her coworkers have some too. She was truly an angel and I'm sad to no longer see her bright, shining face anymore. She was beyond hilarious and had me and others cracking up all the time. To her family, I know I'm a stranger, but I hope your healing process goes as smoothly as possible. It'll be rough, it'll be heartbreaking, and it'll feel empty, but in time, you'll be able to look back on her and smile. Remember the impact she had on your life and use that to keep pushing through and go forward in life in your own time.

“ Amanda was a special friend to work with. She often showed up when she didn't feel well, but still gave it her all. Many customers and coworkers became friends with her and with whom she shared a hug. Rest In Peace and may God bless your family.

Being a frequent visitor at Walmart, my usual path was to check out with Amanda, if I didn't, I would be in trouble, I will miss our little heart to hearts. She was a Great Lady and its saddens me to hear she passed but God needed her more then we did I guess. God Speed Amanda. One day.....
