“ Truly so so sad that so many friends are passing at such young ages. I can't believe that u have left us and so young and accomplished so many of your goals. My dear friend I'm sorry I wasn't there more for u. It was awesome working with u last year definitely was different u being my boss this time n was looking forward to just hanging out again n catching up, but now I'll have to wait my turn to hang out with u again but when we do , girlfriend u know that's going to be one heck of a celebration of our new lives! We gonna rock those streets paved with gold! I miss your smiling face n your positive cheerful laugh. Now my cleaning buddy has left me for a while, but do u think it works up there like down here when we were in school , SAVE ME A CHAIR UP THERE! Love n miss u til we meet again my friend! Fly the highest and forever happy !! always remember our times, the wild and the wilder!!!
