“ Tony was my friend from the first day we met in Kindergarten. He will always be remembered by me as a great friend who was always there to listen and make me laugh even when I didn't really feel like it. I will miss his smile, laugh and kind words. Now he can rest with the Angels and no longer feel pain. He will never be forgotten by anyone whose life he touched. My prayers of comfort to Pat, John, Angel and the rest of the Distefano family.

“ Pat, John, Angel, & family, I will hold you close to my heart and keep you in my prayers. What fond memories I have of babysitting for my dear cousins. One of their favorite games was "What time is it Mr. Fox?" Tony was pretty young at the time and used to say "Mea Foc what time it is?" Well my sweet Tony...I guess it is time to rest peacefully in the arms of God. Love you always.

“ Pat, Angel, John and all the Distefano families, My mom and I were so sad to hear about Tony, it is hard to lose someone, but someone so young it's even harder. Remember the good times and the memories to keep him close in your heart. Here is a little story I'm not sure you know about, when I was in high school, he was probably 11 or 12, I use to coach little girls softball and practices were over in the old track behind the elementary school. He would come over on his bike (sometimes with Paul Valentine) on Tuesdays & Thursday during practice and they would help me pitch for batting practice. I couldn't pitch for crap and they were bored, or scoping out the 9 yrs., it worked out great. He was always such a nice polite kid it was a pleasure to have him around. Again we are so sorry.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. "If a man die, shall he live again"? asked the man Job long ago. Perhaps you are wondering the same. How will you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved one was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions? Well the Bible makes the promise: Your dead ones will live...They will rise up. (Isaiah 26:19) I hope this bring you and your family some comfort during the difficult days ahead.
