“ Since leaving MI in 1996 my conversations with Asher have been few and brief, I was close to her, I was maid-of-honor in her wedding and spent many holidays being entertained at Sharon's. This news was followed by many tears and she will always be remembered and loved by me, she was a perfect friend and for that reason alone I will never forget growing up in Grand Junction. To the family who remembers me, I would love to hear from you time to time, espiecially to hear how her children are doing, and the rest of the family as well. you can contact me via email or phone # is (972)734-6017 and physical address is 3021 winding meadow tr, princeton, tx,75407. with upmost respect and my deepest sympathy....god bless##imported-begin##Johann Hill##imported-end##

“ *Huminsky Family~ I'm so sorry for the loss of Asher! I went to High School with her, although I haven't seen her in years. May God be with you in your time of need, and help provide for those 4 precious babies of hers! Please let Mitch know that I'm thinking of him now as well!! “ *Dear Sharon - I am praying for you as you lay your loving daughter to rest in the care of God in Heaven. She is now at rest with her God and Savior. He has welcomed her home as we all will be some day! If you need someone to help with anything, please let me know. There are so many of us at Ridgepoint ready and willing to help.
