“ We were so sad to hear of Ben's passing. He was always so polite and well mannered, He would come by our house and we would have friendly political and religious conversations. He was the only person I knew who could have those conversations and keep it friendly. He was one of God's angels put here for a short time for all of us to enjoy. Hugs to the whole family and a great big Mom to Mom hug from me to Becky.

“ Ben was one of my residents in Allegan and he was one of the most respectful young men I have ever met. I use to just set and talk with Ben and he was very intelligent.
