“ I met Betty in 2001 right after my daughter had passed away. She and a colleague came to pick up medical supplies that I was donating to Hospice. She looked at me, saw my profound grief, told me that she could tell that I was "a real Mom"....and that I needed Lisa! That chance meeting led to the help that was so vital to my journey through the grief process. She was a special person....I will always remember her, and that day! I know her family will miss her....know that she surely made a difference in many lives, including mine. Thank You, Betty.
