“ I will miss you dearly Betty. I know we didn't see each other often enough, but kept in touch by phone. We sure had fun at the casino. You are one of the sweetest people I've known, always kept moving, working through the pain everyday.

To Betty's family:

I met Betty when she lived in the apartment on Cherokee. My Mom and Stepdad were her neighbors. They had such fun together. I always felt that Betty was the Grandmother I lost many years ago. May God bless her and her family.##imported-begin##Terrie Rinehart##imported-end##
