“ Becca and family. Your mom was the sweetest person in the entire world. I first met Betty in my classroom at Park School. She, and your Dad, came to parent teacher conferences. They were both so proud and supportive of you and rightfully so. We soon became friends and colleagues in education. She loved being with children and helping them. God has a plan for each of us and Betty’s plan certainly reflected her life, in the words of Maury Schwartz, “ Death ends a life; Not a relationship.” I know this will continue for you and your family. May she RIP. Hugs ❤️
