Bonnie was born November 1, 1942 in Smith's Creek, MI, the daughter of Angus and Merle (Rich) McLeod and lived in the Bloomingdale area since 2002. “ My husband and I first met Bonnie and her dog, Charlie at the campground in Alabama in 2021. We loved taking walks and talking with her. What an amazing woman. At her age, she was so active, making sure she and Charlie walked "up" the hill at least once a day. At Valentine's Day, she would knock on our door with the best dessert.

We are wintering there again this year and asked about her and Charlie, that's when we found out about her passing. We wish to convey our sincere sympathy and prayers to her family. She will definitely be missed by her friends at the campground in Alabama.
