“ Brad was my cousin who is younger than me so growing up he was always quiet. These past few years he would see me in the store always had a smile and a few words. He was taken too young and will be missed by many. R.I.P Brad

“ Brad, a good friend of mine. During our high school years he introduced us Gobles guys to his cousins and friends in Allegan who we became good friends with. He enjoyed his cars, which we all drove to fast and somehow survived the ditches, snowbanks and trees we encountered. We did lots motorcycle riding in our 20's and spent many a New Years eve together back then. When we talked it was always about good things and great times we had in our lives. Sending thoughts and prayers to his family.

“ Brad was not only my cousin, he was my best friend growing up. Weekends as a child we would spend endless hours playing with our HO race tracks while our parents visited. As we grew, we rode dirt bikes, snowmobiles and dreamed about what cool cars we would have when we turned 16. Brad's pride and Joy was his 1977 Ford Mustang. As we grew in our teens, we got into our share of trouble, but man did we have fun doing it! Unfortunately, life happens and we lost touch over the past 40 years. Those memories will forever be on my mind.
