“ Carl had a great sense of humor and a deadpan face when he was pulling someone's leg. My son Ian had to clue his brother Deshawn in to what was happening. Carl and Gail are both so loved by my boys and grandson Elijah. He was loving, solid and a great male presence in their lives. Carl and Gail have been a great presence in my life as well. My heart goes out to Gail, Wendi, Bobby, Chris and Sandy, their grandchildren and great grand daughter. He will be deeply missed and loved always. He is in God's presence now. ❤️ 🙏❤️
