“ I will forever be grateful and thankful for Aunt Carolyn and Uncle Rex. Gail and I spent ALOT of our childhood on their farm. So thankful for the exposure to cows (making butter drinking fresh milk) riding horses (our favorite), the pigs and chickens, and that horrible rooster that loved to chase us kids around! ”

Such a gentle soul, always had a kind word for others. Remember she always would offer you some tea to drink. She was always a second mother to me.

As Sisters with much age difference between us my memories are sparce at best through my younger years with the exception of gathering after church for visiting and enjoying many wonderful sweet breads /rolls or playing with nieces and nephews at the creek, in the hay loft, on/in wooden spools, & riding horses. My relationship deepened & matured with age (mine) and she was always available with wisdom on practically any subject. And always a Birthday & Anniversary card would find its way to brighten your day. I'm happy to know she is now enjoying the rewards of her strong faith and no longer in pain, but oh how I will miss her!! As will all who knew her. Till we meet again... At Jesus feet.
