“ I know you and I were each others pain in the ass. We didn't see or talk very often, but I hope you know that you didn't have to hear the words as my sister I have loved you my whole life. I miss you and I will always keep loving you. Rest for now as a new world awaits you. Got our memories collected until then. Love you.

“ I have wonderful memories of Grandma. One of my favorite memory of her was that we were camping in her yard and Grandma would tell scary stories and when she was done she would say "something is behind you!" and I would jump. One time I jumped so fast I dropped my smore and we both started laughing. Thank you Grandma for all the wonderful time we spent together. I'm going to miss you very much.

“ Our cousin Charlene was always smiling, cutting up with us and fun to be around. When thinking of her I remember one occasion the most when my twin brother Steve and I road with Charlene, in a small opal I believe, to one of the many lakes near Bloomingdale. We were young and I'm not sure if she was old enough to drive legally yet, but she took us swimming and feed us sweet tarts. We had a blast. Wonderful cousin. Can't wait to see u in heaven.
