“ I will always remember Uncle Charlie. I knew him from my birth until his death. One of my favorite memories as a kid ... I remember he was at our house on Albany Street. We were all sitting on the breezeway visiting. Then Uncle Charlie started telling his stories. I loved when he talked about his garden. He said that he grew strawberries so big that he only needed one to fill an entire quart jar. And I believed him. Love you. Shelly Mills Heuser

“ Many good memories of his visits and staying with us at the lake. He gave me my first bicycle. He and aunt Donna were always at the top of our favorites list. Now that you are reunited with Aunt Donna. Rest in peace Uncle Charlie.

“ Charlie has been a great neighbor to us for over 30 years. He was gruff on the outside but soft on the inside. He grew the biggest bell peppers and the sweetest muskmelons that he turned into the worst wine. He was a die hard Union Man and proudly wore his "I Made History" button after casting his vote for Hillary Clinton. He was always willing to lend a hand and loved sharing his farm property for lovely walks in his woods. He was a member of the Greatest Generation who served his country without question and then as a proud employee of the State of Michigan. We all knew how much he missed his sweet Donna. Rest in Peace Charlie and give a hug from us to Donna.
