“ Cheri and I met when she was the cook at CountryFare Restaurant in Grd. Jct. back in the 90's , became friends, lost contact with each other for years until 2020 when I saw her again it was like we already knew the other but couldn't recall how. It has always felt like we were blood sisters somehow, we were so alike. Cheri taught me to say “NO” & to stand up for myself, be strong, & I deserve much better than I have accepted in my life. She became my best friend/sister and I was able to assist in helping with Cheri in the months prior to her passing. I was one of her in home help aides , but more than anything,I was family! Her & I have so many good memories and only one bad memory n that was my fault. You BETTER NOT EVER TELL BOLD AND BEAUTIFUL 1LIE! I made a mistake about the day I would b visiting her n I couldn't make it or forgot n OMG !!! I was lucky she even gave me a 2nd chance, but that's who she was and she was correct , I should have called when I realized but I didn't want to upset her any further.2-3 months of silence broke my heart without communication with my sis! She says,”Shelby , that's how MY HEART felt when u told me u would see me that day, I look forward to our time together “! I never lied to that Bold& Beautiful Lady again! Of course this is an app with a filter , but We both loved this pic. RIP Cheri Love, Shelby! Bold&Beautiful and Sweet&Sassy I LOVE N MISS U MY DEAR DEAR SISTER CHERI!
