Cheryl Salinas, age 54, passed away peacefully on October 9th, 2024. Cheryl was a devoted mother to four wonderful children: Rikel Riddle, Jon Mitchell, Kara Salinas, and Damiano Salinas as well as an inspiring hero to her five grandchildren Paiten Riddle, Noah Riddle, Sarah Jane Riddle, Elijah Moats and Waylon Gorden. She extended her motherly love to many children everywhere she went. In her arms every child was safe and never went without a home cooked meal. Cheryl was a survivor and a warrior, having fought off cancer for many years and inspiring thousands with her story. Born in Battle Creek Michigan, she was a lover of animals, raising many throughout her life both at home and on the farm. Cheryl was also a talented home cook, known for her delicious fried chicken and cheesecake. During Thanksgiving, she was famous for making turkey and pumpkin pie for shelters and the homeless, and at Christmas, everyone eagerly awaited her honey-baked ham.

Cheryl saw the best in everyone she met and was never afraid to speak her mind. Her kindness, strength, and generosity touched the lives of many, and she will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
