“ There was a poem that was read at Pat's mothers funeral that meant a lot to her. It goes like this:

*Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.*

*I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.*

*I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you awaken in the mornings hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
of quiet birds in circled flight,
I am the soft stars that shine at night.*

*Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.*

We feel that Claudia will always be with us all.##imported-begin##Richard and Patricia Heiser##imported-end##
