“ I have been trying to figure out just which memory I wanted to share...luckily I had many some as young as our teen years. I loved him then like kissing cousin. Once. Then all through the years I always stayed very fond of him. He and I was much too close for cousin's. He was my closest friend. I had such a connection with him that I can not explain. I hope he felt it too. He was always there for me as a shoulder to cry on or a pat on the back and a respite once for weeks when I lost my old usual life and had to think up a new Lynda. . . he always knew just what I needed. I'm glad I always shared with him just how much I loved him. . . till we meet again
