“ Dave was in my high school class. He will always be remembered as being kind and good for a laugh. He had a sensitive nature and I remember being in the Gobles store after Grandma died. We were buying groceries for a funeral luncheon and David came with some grocery items saying, "There. This is for you to use for the funeral." I also have wonderful memories of the Bloomingdale store when Gordon would shout to you as you entered the store. He was usually behind the meat counter.

“ Growing up in Gobles everyone new Dave Rumery. He was a very kind man. Loved going to Superior Market and seeing him behind the meat counter. Many years ago I had taken my young son Justin to the store with me after going to the Doctor for an allergic reaction to a bug bite. Justin's face was swollen and some what disfigured at the moment and Dave came over gave him a hug and kiss on the forehead and then went and got some frozen fudge bars and put them in the cart and said those are for Justin. He was made an unhappy child smile that day. Those are the things I remember most. My condolences to the family, we will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. God Bless. ~ Susan DeVries Kridler

“ I remember the first time that I met Dave, it was when Superior Market was in the Ace Hardware store...before it was Ace Hardware :)
I went in there with my aunt and he said hi to me...asked me how I was. After that, he always made a point to say hi whenever he saw me, but that's how he was...always saying hi to everyone.
My heart goes out to his wife, Joan, and to their family 💕
