“ *She was a teacher and a friend and a confidant.
She was the most beautiful woman to ever walk the face of the earth.
She walked with God and influenced others in their journeys.
She was a gift to all who knew her.
Her love was my staff in many hard times.*

“ I'm saddened to learn of Debbie's passing. I always looked forward to my short conversations with her after mowing her lawn or plowing the drive. She always spoke very highly of her children and grandchildren and always asked about my family as well. She was a wonderful and caring lady and I'm thankful I was able to meet her.
