“ I played basketball with Debbie in high school. She was a few years younger than me but we really had a blast playing ball. She could make me laugh like nobody else could. She was such a beautiful person and had the best smile. Debbie was one of the best people I've ever known. The world will miss her.

“ My cousin Debbie, her sister, Diane, and I used to play as if we were singers on a stage. We'd listen to the Beatles and sing along while dancing around like performers! Our own version of kaoroke... Love you sweetie...
