“ So sorry to hear that Lano passed away. It was always a happy occasion when he came to the Rose Reunion. In my mind, I can see him coming through the door at the hotel. He loved the reunions. He will definitely be missed! Our deepest sympathy to all the Rose family. Deanna & Will Rose

“ Growing up a few doors down from the Rose family, Ron & I became fast friends in the mid 70's - Very early on I realized, Then became Truly FASCINATED Watching Mr. Rose (Pop) He was INCREDIBLE- Virtually SELF TAUGHT in So Many Fields - The Man could Dream Up / Build nearly ANYTHING - Construction / Plumbing / Wiring - Heating - Welding,, You Name It - The Man Could DO IT!!! FIX virtually ANYTHING - He was AMAZING - A Very Quiet man, Man of Few Words, As they say, But when he DID Speak, You listened!!! And Work Ethic.....Del Rose WROTE THAT BOOK!!! In my 59 years on this Earth I have known FEW that even Came Close to HIS Work Ethic!!! If there was a Job that needed done, Mr. Rose DID It!!! Rain, Snow - Heat / Humidity made NO Difference to him - NO grass grew under Him - There have been numerous times in MY adult life, at work or working on something, when I have been Beat & just want to call it quits (for the day or for good) & I think back to those times & remember So MANY times that He was gone before daylight / home after dark & then START working on something At His House the man was like a machine - And its kept ME going Mr.Rose was a Man I quickly grew to Respect & Look Up to from a Very Early age as a kid to and Still, As an Adult !!!! Rest in Peace, Mr. Rose,, You have MORE Than EARNED it!!! ❤️ 🙏

Always enjoyed Uncle Lano, great memories riding on tractor & go karts. Picking cherries & stained red hands upset stomach from eating more than you picked.

It was pretty regular trips from Ohio to MI when my Dad was healthy. After Dad passed I'd call chat with Uncle Lano he had called ID he would answer Hello Mr Rose & my reply was Hello Mr Rose.

So glad I visited when I did in Oct.

Hang in there cousins our thoughts are with you ❤️🙏
