Deb and family. I've not heard Del and his music and singing very often but I always admired how he looked after you during your struggles with health issues. As a matter of fact that was a time when I last saw you both. He's singing in his heavenly home now. A special song comes to mind played at Don Walters funeral called. I CAN ONLY IMAGINE!!!! maybe someday I will get to hear him then. We are so saddened by your loss. Comfort and blessings to your family.

“ I first met Del getting close to 30 years ago. Del and I share the love and music, and 20 19 began doing some Jam sessions and later they turn them in some practice session because we would go to harborfest, Blueberry Festival, Fourth of July 2019 and play around town on the street corner. But that was never to happen! But now I look back on those nights that we got together and played and talk those were some fine times indeed which I will never forget of course dad was always very supportive or what we were doing you rarely ever saw one without the other.Del I will probably never think about the festival in South Haven without thinking of you performing somewhere and those nights that we hung out and played together. Farewell My friend maybe you'll get to meet Dusty Hill and many others on the other side!

“ Man I don't know where to start 😞
Del was a great man and was gifted with music and a voice. He was always down to earth and loved playing & singing his guitar 🎸. I'm going to miss this man and I know the lord wanted him for a reason. Rest easy Del. Make sure you play the guitar and sing that beautiful voice you have to all the love ones we've lost. Love you brother ❤️

“ I've known Del nearly thirty years, and in that time, he always welcomed me into his home. He always had a friendly word, and that smile, you know the one ..

I was just beginning to play blues harp when I met Del. He would listen to my horrible attempts with a smile. And after, always encouragement. " You sound great, keep on it, keep pushing "

His singing and playing was from the heart, which is why people dug his sound. You could tell he meant it. Gonna miss that.

Enjoy retirement Del. See you soon.

P.s. Tell Richie Haven I said hi.
