“ DJ proved that even when cancer attacks the body, it does not have to destroy the mind, body or spirit. He was a selfless and caring person who spent alot more time worrying about others than himself, even when he was at his worst physically. If everyone gave a fraction of the effort that DJ did in helping others, the world would be a much better place.

“ Dj and i werent very close during high school and after, but when we were younger he would joke around with my brother michael and all our cousins and neighborhood friends, ALWAYS making us laugh. Last week i went through a very difficult time and he went out of his way to talk to me and give me guidance when i needed it most, and we had not even spoken in i dont know how long. That is the type of person he was... Kind, sweet, funny... Always made me smile and helped me look at the positives in life. Tho i say we werent close, he was a great cousin and i will always remember him, especially when people say the word 'goober' because thats what he use to call me. I will miss you with all my heart <3. Love your cuz brittany
