“ To Jane, the girls, and extended family,
Although I know that he had suffered for many years, our family was heartbroken by the news of Don's passing. He was such a special, gentle man. I personally have very happy memories of visits to your home, and you to ours, and your friendship has been a much-treasured constant in my mother's life forever.
I am well aware of the tireless care that you gave to Don - he was beyond blessed to call you his loving wife and family. It brings our family some small joy that my mother can join you to say goodbye at the memorial today. Sending good thoughts and condolences your way.
