“ My heartfelt sympathy to Virginia and the family. We have lost an extremely kind hearted and easy going friend. I remember he was very warm and caring when I first became a part of the family and he would visit us at our apartment in South Haven. Our loss is heaven's gain. -Melanie Thompson Zeiger

“ Couldn't find a better person, than Don Walantyn. He and Virginia were life long friends. We worked on a lot of Church projects together. They hauled food for the food baskets that were handed out on Thursdays. He was by her side in all these projects. May you RIP, Don.
