“ I remember the big holiday meals and family get togethers with more laughter than eating mom loved cooking especially for a crowd. Also playing penny poker no one won or lost more than a dollar but we played for hours . I am really going to miss this special mom. Love you

“ I remember Donna from Inpatient dialysis at Borgess. She and Pauline Smith showed me how to clean the Service Master way.

Lora and Tommy she talked about you a lot, and she sure loved to laugh.

May fond memories of her help you through this time.

“ Mom loved her trips to bingo, sometimes (when I was old enough), she would take me along. I never won that much. She seem to come home several times talking about her winnings. Pretty sure it was more about getting out and sharing stories with the other women at the tables though. When I didn't go, would spend time with dad and here some his tales growing up in such a different time.
