

Dorothy I. Bond

January 30, 1939 - July 4, 2012

Passed away Wednesday, July 4, 2012 in Bloomingdale. Dorothy was born January 30, 1939 in Benton, AR, the daughter of Alvin and Cora (Miller) Hester and had lived in the Hartford, Bangor and Gobles areas the majority of her life. She was an avid reader and enjoyed writing and bicycling. Surviving are 2 children, Tim (Diane) of Mattawan, Vicki (Joseph) Maxa of Fennville. She was preceded in death by her parents and an aunt, Zola. Following her wishes, cremation has taken place. Private burial will take place at a later date in Maple Hill Cemetery, Hartford. The family suggests memorial contributions to the American Red Cross or Paws for a Cause, Wayland. Arrangements by BLOOMINGDALE CHAPEL, D. L. Miller Funeral Home, www.dlmillerfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

PB

“ My condolences to the family and freinds of Dorothy. I recall with fondness Dorothy's great concern for those who suffered from physical challenges. She wrote many letters to my brother (a quadraplegic) encouraging him to keep his mind strong as this was man's greatest asset. I will always have a smile on my face in remembering Dorthy.

Pam Baney

Pam baney - July 10, 2012 at 08:17 AM