“ I met Pam and her mom when I was in 7th grade. Edie taught me how to make Potato Rolls which to this day someone in our family makes every Thanksgiving! I loved listening to her talk about Real Estate and her marketing ideas. In the early 70's she was a Real Estate dynamo! She was always warm and welcoming to all of Pams friends from school. That was the place all of us 7th graders wanted to hang out! I am 60 now, and at a loss for words at her passing. I know our time on earth ends eventually, but the pain hits like a freight train when someone you love passes. I always wanted her to be my mom. Love you Edie!!! Pam I can't begin to relay my sorrow at your loss. I love you.
