“ Elaine was always caring for what was in her midst. During the last 1960's I came to know her and Greg, and they were a wonderful couple. What a privilege to have spent time with them, whether at Fricano's or her sister Jean's and even at her folk's farm. Always welcoming, funny and sweet. Her heart knew no boundaries. That trait played throughout her life, and she has touched many lives with her quiet gentleness; she is resting in heavenly peace.

“ I came to know Elaine through the Beulah Eagle cam. We had a lot of fun watching the Eagles and chatting. We decided we needed a Facebook group and she set it up for us. Good times. I first met Elaine in 2017 when she came over to Kensington Metropark with Greg Jr. We had the most wonderful day hand feeding birds, strolling the trails, taking pictures and talking about everything. Two years later i met up with Elaine and Greg Jr again at Kensington. Elaine brought sandwich bags filled to the top with bird seed. We were sitting on a bench, and as i got up, i spilled half the seed out of my bag. I was mortified and quickly began to scoop it up when she told me not to worry about it and to just leave it. She said she had plenty of bird seed at home. About that time, 2 little red squirrels were at the bench eating and chittering as fast as they could. Some Chipmunks tried to get in to get some seeds, but the red squirrels were not having it. We laughed so hard. Elaine said she had never seen or heard anything like it before, neither had i and we laughed some more. Elaine was a wonderful friend. A kind and gentle soul. One of the nicest people i have ever met. I miss her dearly. My thoughts, prayers and deepest condolences to Greg Sr., Greg Jr., Dawn and Steve, and the rest of the family.
