“ I am beyond sad to hear Eric has left this world. He was an Amazing young man who never failed to make me smile. I will never forget the shorts he always wore no matter what the temperature. How he moved items in my office just to see how long it would take me to figure it out. But what I remember about Eric most, is his gift of music. You will be surely missed Eric..God's Speed....Until we meet again, know you were Loved and Appreciated ...

“ My sincere condolences to Eric's family. He and I graduated together. Eric was always kind, caring, and joyful. He was always one of those people I could say was genuine in who he was and in everything he did.

“ I am sending my sincere sympathy and love to all of Eric's family.

I knew Eric when he was in high school. A great young man, kind and respectful. I then was reacquainted with him as an adult when he started working at the high school. As an adult he was kind and friendly and always asking about about my family.

Prayers and hugs!
