“ Lynn:

We are both very sorry for your loss and selfishly, we feel like another small but important part of our youth is gone. Your mom always sent us a Christmas card and wrote a message every year. We missed her card this year and wondered if she might be ill.

Heaven Knows! Our children and grandchildren are probably as familiar with the Baas family as we are, as many times as we have told them tales of the good ol' days and how we earned our spending money in the Baas orchards when we were young.
