“ It has been a week now, I feel so empty without her here! She put up such a good strong fight, and now she is resting as she waits for her JESUS to raise her up whole, no more suffering, no more pain, no more sadness, what a glorious day that will be. I loved her so much! Thank You Fay, We'll be there together again.

“ Praying for your family. I will miss Fay very much. Her smile and enthusiasm lit up any room she was in. I was priviledged to know her. "In the blink of an eye...raised whole and imortal". I look forward to the day when we see Fay in her new body and all of the rest of our loved ones that are now sleeping. Keeping all of you in our prayers.###imported-begin###Eileen Fellberg Florea###imported-end###

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Fay passing. I haven't seen the family in a long time. When someone passes that you haven't seen in a long time, you start saying things like, " I should have went to visit more often" Well, that's exactly what I'm thinking. But you know, people lose touch, they get busy, and time passes by without a notice.

All I can say, is that I have very great memories of fay when I did see her a lot in my younger years. She was funny, energetic, loved to laugh. She loved her family a lot, and was genuinely and fine lady.

Fay...I'm regret not being a part of your life in recent years, but thank you for the part of my life that you touched.

“ Dear Frank,
Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this very difficult time. There are no words to say that can take away the hurt you are feeling, but just know that others are here for you and will be praying that god gives you the strength to take one day at a time. May the precious memories you hold so dear of the life, love and laughter that you and Faye shared turn to the comfort you need to give you healing and the will to go on.

Our hearts & prayers are with each of you.

sincerely

“ I had really hoped to get up to Michigan to visit Fay - we had been keeping in touch until the past few months. I treasure all the wonderful times Fay and I spent talking about important issues. She was such a fine woman with so much ability and such a big heart. Our love, concern and prayers go out to Frank and each of Fay's children... what a loss!###imported-begin###Werner and Jan Grentz###imported-end###
