“ Ed, Christine, Freddy and families,

So sorry for your loss.

Frank was always a pleasure to talk to every time him and Kenny would stop by the store to visit.

They will both be missed.

RIP Frank.

“ I never had a father when I was growing up. I lived with Frank and my mom my whole life. Frank did everything with me a dad is supposed to do. He taught me how to ride a bike. He taught me how to tie my shoes. He took me hunting. He took me fishing. Bought me my first fishing pole.

He stepped up when I needed somebody. He'll never know how grateful I was.
