

Frank Leon Clapp Jr.

September 21, 1948 - April 9, 2021

Frank L. Clapp Jr.

Age 72

Grand Junction

Passed away Friday, April 9, 2021 at his home. Frank was born September 21, 1948 in Royal Oak, MI, the son of the late Hank and Myrna Clapp. Frank was a very passionate, understanding man. He lived for the Lord and was a member of the Pullman Seventh Day Adventist Church. He was also a long time employee at Oak Haven. After graduating Frank enlisted in the US Army where he served in Korea as an accountant. He loved kayaking, magnet fishing, bicycling and carpentry being his main career. Frank was a very kind and loving man and always treated everyone with respect. Frank was not afraid of work and was always willing to do what was needed and help anyone in need.

Surviving are his children, Jennifer Lee (Tubby) Burnett and Thomas (Brittany Allen) Clapp; step children, Wendy (Dean) McConville, Donald (Valerie) Fulton II; many grandchildren and great grandchildren; a sister Elizabeth (Glen) Adams.

He was preceded in death by his wife Fay Alice Clapp, his parents Hank and Myrna Clapp, and a brother, John Clapp.

Following his wishes cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held Sunday, April 25, 2021 at 3 PM at Oak Haven Chapel - Pullman SDA. A cookout luncheon will follow the service at Frank's home. Arrangements entrusted to the Bloomingdale Chapel, D. L. Miller Funeral Home, www.dlmlle.com.

Cemetery Details

Cremation

Previous Events

Memorial Service

APR 25. 3:00 PM (ET)

Pullman Seventh-day Adventist Church
671 52nd Street
Pullman, MI

Tribute Wall

KR

“ Krista lit a candle in memory of Frank Leon Clapp Jr.

Krista - April 21, 2021 at 02:52 AM

KM

“ Lots of good conversations. Sometimes I traded baked goods for Frank to help me with various remodeling and design projects. Loved his caring heart and great smile!

Ken & Kara Miller - April 16, 2021 at 10:57 AM

DB

“ DANA BRYANT lit a candle in memory of Frank Leon Clapp Jr.

DANA BRYANT - April 15, 2021 at 07:05 AM