“ I used to see Frank at the Cooper Clinic in Bangor. He never tired of telling me stories about his life, growing up in Chicago. Every time he came in, he would bring me something: a polished rock, a puzzle to give to a child, a story about his dog. He was always a bright spot in my day. I'll miss you, Frank.

“ I remember all the years Frank did the church dinners with my Dad Steve and my grandpa Frank and my grandma Mary! He was a great guy sorry for the lose
