“ Frank embodied the Christian spirit, heart and soul and his faith will live on in many, as his courage graced us everyday, and lifted our spirits. He was always happy to share a conversation, and what's for lunch foods, Spaghetti O's! Oh yeah! I amongst many, give thanks for the friendship shared, thanks for the memories Frank, and the one last hug! My Hubby was thrilled to share the deer story with you, and the visual aid was priceless!
So many hearts grew bigger because of you!

Love you! Mike and Kelli Biesbrock

“ I was so happy to be able to reconnect with Frank thru FaceBook. I am not at all surprised at how God used Frank during this past year. What an awesome witness.....I am going to miss his daily postings. I will always remember Frank's humor and wit....and also what a charmer he was. In spite of everything he was going through, he made it a point to pray for my daughter during her health troubles. I feel like she now has a special angel watching over her. My heart breaks for Nora, Franks sisters and his beautiful wife Cathy. May you find comfort in knowing that Frank touched so many during his life and we are all better for having known him. God bless you!

“ My brother just picked my grandpa up from the hospital and stopped by Whiskey Run. Frank hooked into a salmon and handed the pole to my grandpa. This was the first salmon my grandpa had ever fought. Frank told my brother to go down and net the fish and clean it up however my pa wanted. This was the last day of salmon season and Frank not only gave up the chance to fight the fish, but was so gracious to even give it to my pa. This gesture made my grandpa's day and will never be forgotten. Frank was a great man and I will always remember all the great times we had at Whiskey Run.

“ I met Frank years ago at a favorite Salmon fishing spot! I could tell right from the beginning he loved fishing. My son was fishing one night and his Gram-pa pulled up to the guard-rails to see what the action was like. Right then Frank hooks a fish steps back and hands the fish to Pa (Grand-pa) so he steps over the guard-rails and starts fighting the fish just a smiling! Another fisher man goes to net the fish and Frank say's you better let the Grand-son get that one! He got the fish and took it home! Frank really made their day and mine also!

I will really miss Franks post on Face-book I enjoy the songs he would post and still play them to this day! I am thankful to be your friend and what a blessing you have and always will be! Your Friend Wes!

“ Many wonderful memories but a couple of my favorites were, sipping a few cold ones on the back deck of a cabin overlooking Traverse Bay, and playing horseshoes at Wellston. What an honor and blessing to know you Frank you touched so many, and you still are. Thank you for the scriptures and funny emails and all the laughs. I know your having a blast right now and in the blink of an eye we will all be together again. Praise God Our Father for that opportunity!! Love you Frank and see you on the other side. Your cuz, and brother and sister in Christ. Rick and Mel
