Georgia was born July 10, 1935, in Tamms, Illinois, the daughter of Perry Atcher Jr. and Dora Garrett. She graduated from Lovejoy High School. She married young and devoted her life to her family while also working at Adams electronics. She gave her life to Christ at age 20 in 1955. A longtime member of Blue Star COGIC, under Elder Samuel Baker and the late Elder Ivory Grays, she became a church mother. She used her knowledge of the bible and her spirit to be a help to anybody she could. A bible band teacher and district Mother for the third jurisdictional district as well, she was known for saying, I just want to be a help and singing her signature song, "May the works I've done, speak for me". Fellowshiping under Bethel Star Community COGIC since 2010, she continued to minister of God's work until her death. She enjoyed cooking, ministering, listening to music, but most importantly, she loved her family and friends.

Georgia leaves to cherish her memory her eleven children, Renee (Alem) Kashay, Connie Fortenberry, Dora (Harold) Willis, Henry Perry Jr, Georgia D.

“ *Dear Wilson Family and Friends,
I wasn't privileged with the remarkable acquaintance of Mrs. Wilson as you were, but it saddens me to read of your loss. Please accept my family's sincere condolences. Many are comforted in knowing that our Creator assures us in the Bible that soon death and mourning will be no more. May you have peace.*
