“ I want to offer my deepest sympathies to all of Ginger’s family. I’m thankful that I had a long phone conversation with her in February to sort of catch up. However, I prefer to remember Ginger as the kid cousin on the farm where I used to visit in the summertime and on holidays. We were close in age and both red-heads. One memory that pops to mind is of an incident that occurred in Allegan on October 5, 1963, the day that Ginger and Scott were married. That afternoon, I was with other cousins who managed to access Uncle Frank’s and Aunt Phyllis’ locked garage to “decorate” Scott’s nice clean car. I suppose that Ginger and Scott forgave us for that. Not so long after that it seems we cousins went our own ways in life.

“ We will always remember the fun times that we had with Ginger and her brother Frankie when we visited their family farm in Michigan. We traveled across the country from Tacoma, Washington to enjoy their animals, the farm life and family picnics. Ginger loved to laugh, wear bathing suits in the summer and was very kind. Sending Love from The Pacific Northwest Hillery Hansen, Carla Miller and our families
