“ Mr Nordbrock always welcomed me and my granddaughters to his farm where he shared with us his latest crop of piglets. The smile on his face was huge as AeCha and Emme delighted in his little piggies and while experiencing his farm with all it's other animals.

During our visits, he graciously took the time to answer all questions and he assured the girls they were welcome to visit the farm anytime.

Glen was a kind hearted fellow with ruddy cheeks, a marvelous Santa beard, and a big smile. We will miss him.

Thank you for the kind words, Patty. He loved showing off his piggies (and his beard!). When we were in Elementary school he brought baby pigs to show the "city kids" of Gobles.
