

Glenn Storey

November 27, 1910 - December 2, 2009

Glenn Storey, age 99, of Kendall and Gobles, passed away Wed., Dec. 2, 2009 at the Alamo Nursing Home. Mr. Storey was born Nov. 27, 1910 in Kendall, the son of Wilbur M. and Mary (LeMahieu) Storey, and lived in this area all of his life. In 1972, he retired from KVP as a printing pressman after 44-1/2 years of service. He was an avid hunter, fisherman and loved to dance to the music of the big band era. For many years he enjoyed baking cookies and pies for his friends and the Kendall Soup Suppers. He is survived by a son and his wife, Bruce G. and Beverly K. Storey of Gobles; 3 granddaughters, Marcia (Gary) Alfieri of Kalamazoo, Glenda (Michael) Himmel of Kalamazoo, and Diane (Randy) Covault of Allegan; 6 great grandchildren, Bret and Nicole Alfieri, Megan and Ryan Himmel, Eric and Brittany Covault; a sister-in-law, Helen Storey; several nieces, nephews, and very special neighbors. He was preceded in death by his wife of 60 years, Mildred, in 1991; 2 brothers, Claude and Floyd. The family will meet friends Sunday 2-4 and 6-8 PM at the GOBLES CHAPEL, D. L. Miller Funeral Home, where funeral services will be held Monday 11 AM, Pastor Tony Shumaker officiating. Interment Kendall Cemetery. Following the committal you are invited to a luncheon at the Kendall United Methodist Church. The family suggests memorials to the Kendall United Methodist Church Kitchen Fund or Alamo Nursing Home Activity Fund or a charity of your choice.

“ Bruce, Bev, and family. You are in our thoughts and prayers at this time. Looking at all those wonderful pictures yesterday tells how far back our families go. Guess Kendall was pretty much Story's and Waber's. Talking to Clare Champerlin and he said he remembered your Dad since he was 5 years old. And he is now 91. Says a lot about family and friends. Peace to you all.##imported-begin##Shirley & Don Brown & Flossie Wesler##imported-end##
