“ At a time like this one thinks back over a lifetime of memories. My mom and dad were always there for Gordon when Michael needed someplace to stay. I can still see Michael and my brother sitting at the dining room table putting together model cars, army tanks or planes. Or piling into the car to go to little league games. Gordon was always eager to sit in our kitchen and talk to my dad over a good cup of coffee. Many a discussion on farming and the neighborhood news was had over those cups of coffee. He was able to fix anything it seemed and folks often sought advice from him. After my dad became ill and passed away Gordon was right there offering to do anything he could to help in any way. The same when my mom passed. I was at he and Pat’s wedding. How happy he was that day and every day after that. They were true soulmates. He was so proud of his children and the adults they became and he often spoke so fondly of them. He was a man who lived life according to his playbook and I know he found peace in being able to end the final chapter at home with his family at his side. Rest in Peace Gordon.
