“ My mother called me to tell me of Harriet's entry into heaven. I haven't seen her in many years as our lives took different paths, but I remember great times of sliding parties in with big bonfires in her backyard. I am sorry for the loss of your daughter, sister, mother, and grandmother. I will remember her with many happy thoughts.

Sincerely,

“ Harriet became a friend over the past few years. We never actually met, face to face, but we bonded thru phone conversations and email. She was a great lady. Her family was her life and she loved each and everyone with unconditional love, even tho they may not have understood her all the time. May God grant you comfort and great memories of Harriet and the love she shared with you. You are all important to each other and she would want you do keep in touch with each other and remember her with love.##imported-begin##Sheila Wittmer##imported-end##
