“ Dear Maddron Family and Friends,
I wasn't privileged with the remarkable acquaintance of Mrs.Maddron as you were,but it saddens me to read of your loss. Please accept my family's sincerest condolences. It brings great comfort to many to know that the Almighty God and Creator promises us in his word the Bible, that soon death, mourning, outcry, and pain will be no more. May you have peace.

“ Imogene is my grandmother. She was a very loving woman who always put family first. Her family was her life and she dedicated herself, selflessly to us all. She was an incredible woman who endured so much during her life. She was an incredibly strong woman and fought for her beliefs, her virtues and what she believed to be right. Some of my favorite memories are the 4th of July parties, when all the family got together at "grandma's". The beautiful dresses she made for me when I was little and her wonderful southern cooking, especially her chocolate gravy with homemade biscuits. She will be extremely missed by family and all that were fortunate enough to have known the wonderful woman that was my grandma.

Grandmother, what to say? I'm sorry for your loss to my Aunt's and Uncle's. Especially Uncle Doug. (I know it's hard losing your mom) I don't have many memories (a few from when I was very very young) we were never invited to any family functions, or anything for that matter. I do know she read her Bible, so I do believe she is an angel now. R.I.P. Imogene.
