

Jack Fisher

July 31, 1949 - May 19, 2022

Jack Fisher, age 72, of Bloomingdale, passed away Thursday, May 19, 2022 at his home. Jack was born July 31, 1949 in Grand Rapids, son of the late Raymond and Minnie Fisher and had lived in Bloomingdale the past 42 years. Jack loved kayaking, bicycling, camping and riding his motorcycle. He was an avid photographer and cherished time spent with his family, especially his grandkids. Jack worked his entire career as an appliance repairman.

Surviving is his wife of nearly 44 years, Terry; son, John (Melanie) Fisher; grandchildren, Aaliyah and Carson; brother, Herb Fisher; 2 nieces, Felicia and Suzanne; a nephew, Daniel. He was preceded in death by his parents; a niece, Sara and her daughter, Miranda; sister-in-law, Carlene Visser Fisher.

Following his wishes, cremation has taken place. A memorial service is being planned for a later date. The family suggests memorial contributions be made to Al Van Humane Society, South Haven. Arrangements entrusted to the Bloomingdale Chapel, D. L. Miller Funeral Home.
