“ I knew and admired "Big Jack" for over 50yrs.. It was clear early on that we would be good friends for the long haul...A real easy guy to like.We played sports together,worked at Distefano's pumping gas together and raised a little he'll together.He had a way about him to let you know "he cared" about you...His Good character even inspired me to write a song called "BIG JACK" several years ago about him & some events in his life . If he was YOUR BUDDY then YOU had a GREAT GUY ON YOUR SIDE ! "How bout them Cowboys"😎😊

“ For those of us who had the privilege to call Jack a friend, we knew our lives were richer for having known him. During the years while my late husband, Robin Stanislowski was alive, we spent an enormous amount of time together. Whether it was the weekends we spent on Scott Lake, the Friday night campfires, or our standing Saturday game of Spades with Deb and I playing against the men, we always had fun.

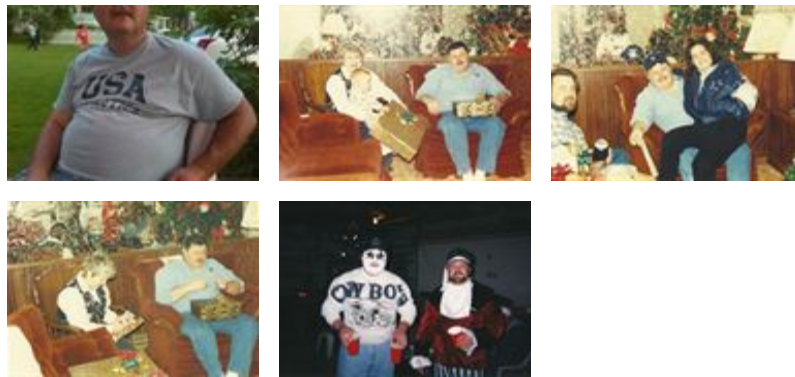

After Robin passed away, both Jack and Debbie remained loyal friends to me. It didn't matter that I was no longer part of the "couple" as they say. They were there for me whenever I needed a shoulder to lean on, a helping hand, or just someone who would listen.

Thank you Jack Titman for your friendship, for the memories, and for all the laughter and joy you brought into my life throughout the years. The world is far too quiet without you in it. Rest In Peace my friend, I'm sure Rob is giving you the nickel tour right about now.
